THREE SISTERS UNDER ONE ROOF

How wonderful is this? Three sisters have all made Schooner Estates their home. Irene Delorme (far right) and her sister Theresa Deschenes (middle) and their husbands lived across the street from each other in Auburn for 59 years. Their sister Florence Raymond also lived in Auburn with her husband and brought up five children in the family homestead where she was born. When Florence and Bert moved to Schooner recently, the three sisters were reunited and still all live in Auburn. We are happy to have them here!

ENTERTAINMENT GALORE

Schooner Estates is a great place to live. Our community offers its residents a wide variety of entertainment and socializing events to make each day fun filled and interesting. Take a look below and you will see what I mean!

Schooner is proud to be hosting a Thursday afternoon performance of Russian pianist Ksenia Kostelanetz, on August 28th at 2:30 p.m. Ksenia is thirteen years old. She was born into a musical family of Russian Immigrants and started her piano studies at the age of four. She is currently a student of Stephen Swedish and Frank Glazer.

On Thursday, July 10th we welcomed two amazing classical pianists:

Mark Demidovich, a native of Kostroma, Russia. He has been warmly received by Schooner Estates residents during the past two seasons. And Vasily Panteleev, 24, from Ukraine, his first trip to Maine. Gifted in languages as well as in music.
