Schooner Tenant Profiles

Please give these folks a warm Schooner welcome!

Thank you to all Schooner Tenants and Employees who help put together our Tenant Profiles!

Do you have a fond memory of a special time in your life that you would like to share, maybe a photo or two? Just let us know, we will be happy to put it in our monthly newsletter.

Note: Some of our profiles do not have photographs included - it all depends on a tenants preference.

Anita Malia, studio A103, recently moved to Schooner Estates from Poland, Maine. She lived in Poland for 30 years and was born and raised in Auburn, Maine. Anita has one daughter, two sons, seven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren. Anita was a homemaker while her children were young and sold Avon for 36 years. She enjoys playing bingo, doing crossword books and sudoku. In prior years she loved to knit and crochet. Anita mentioned that she enjoys having people around to talk to and thinks everyone at Schooner is very nice.

We are happy to have Anita here with us at Schooner!

Joan Butler, apt. 304, recently moved to Maine from Lincoln, Rhode Island. Her daughter, son-in-law and grandson all live in Maine. After years of traveling back and forth to visit one another, Joan and her daughter both decided it was time for her to move here to be closer. Joan chose an independent living facility because she likes the fact that there are always people around and lots of activities to do. Joan was a teacher for 26 years, she mostly taught kindergarten and some elementary school. Joan is a dog lover and after retiring she loved dog sitting for neighbors and friends. She also enjoyed going to the movies and doing painting projects inside her home. Joan enjoys playing bingo, playing cards and is an avid NE Patriots fan. Welcome Joan!

Leo Ayotte, studio A105, comes from and was born and raised in Lewiston. In between, he lived in Florida with his wife for 30 years. Leo was married for 74 years and sadly lost his wife this past April. He speaks highly of her and misses her very much. He has one son that had a twin brother who passed away 14 years ago. He also has two grandchildren and one great grandchild. Leo was in the Marines and before retiring was a Contractor for commercial buildings. After retiring Leo enjoyed fishing and traveling with his wife. Reading and playing bingo are his enjoyments nowadays. Leo has made it known that he loves the food at Schooner! Welcome to Schooner, Leo!

Janice Drewal, studio 104, recently moved from Manhattan, NY. She was born in Brooklyn, NY and recently moved to Maine to be closer to one of two brothers that lives in Maine. Janice decided moving to an independent living facility would be a good idea at this time in her life. Before retirement she was employed by Smith Barney Investments, just 4 buildings away from the Twin Towers. Janice was unfortunately working on the day of the 9/11 attack and had no choice but to deal with that tragedy.

Some of Janice's interests were writing stories, knitting, crocheting, painting and making stained glass. She still enjoys reading and bingo. Welcome Janice!

Kate Goodspeed, apt. 426, comes from Monmouth, Maine. She has 2 children and 2 grandchildren. Kate also lived in China for eight years, which she really enjoyed. She also lived in Mexico for nine years. Kate decided on Schooner after doing some research, she liked what she read and saw and really liked the people here. Prior to retirement, Kate taught English to adult refugees, worked at AT&T Bell Labs and was a Technical Writer. Kate is a quilter, she speaks four languages, loves the TV series Outlander and loves to talk with people. (if you would like to hear some good stories, come and vis-

Welcome Kate!

AMERICANA BBQ REVIEW...

July, the stars and stripes month, brought out a flurry of folks to our "Americana BBQ" on July 10th. The weather did not cooperate fully but that did not dampen the festivities. Our Village Green was decorated in all of the official colors. The food, prepared by Chef Seth Lyons and his amazing culinary staff, was extremely tasty!
